Universidad de Buenos Aires.

Anales de la Universidad de Buenos Aires (1888)

Buenos Aires : Imprenta de Martin Biedma, 1888-1902.

The present series was begun in 1888, and the first three volumes were originally numbered "t. iii-v" in continuation of the numbering of the earlier series. In 1890 it was decided to adopt a separate numbering for the later series and the first three volumes were reissued with title-pages corrected to read "t. i-iii" in place of "t. iii-v"; the volume numbers at the head of the indexes to these volumes were not corrected, however, so that the indexes to v. 1-3 still read: "Indice del tomo iii, ... del tomo v, ... del tomo v. Vol. 5 (corrected numbering) was also reissued.

Buckley, William Frank, 1881-1958.

William F. Buckley, Sr., papers.

[Austin, TX : Nettie Lee Benson Latin American Collection, 1980-1984].

Material covers years 1880-1948 with the bulk comprising 1910-1922.

Reel guide available on the World Wide Web at: <http://dds.crl.edu/CRLdelivery.asp?tid=16359> ; papers inventory also available on the World Wide Web at:

<http://www.lib.utexas.edu/benson/Mex%5fArchives/Buckley.html>

Newspaper clippings, correspondence, and literary productions relating to political conditions in Mexico during the revolutionary period and to Mexico's relationship with the United States and U.S. oil companies operating in Mexico. Narrower topics include revolutionary disturbances in Mexico; the situation of American residents of Mexico, described in materials of the American Association of Mexico and other groups representing Americans in Mexico; the 1914 American occupation of Veracruz; and Buckley's expulsion from Mexico. Clippings, which form the bulk of the papers, are from both Mexican and American newspapers; some are in scrapbooks. Correspondence pertains to Buckley's professional and personal business and includes reports from field agents. Literary productions include transcriptions of newspaper texts as well as reports, statements, speeches, notes, and interviews reflecting Buckley's opinion of events in Mexico. Materials dating from after Buckley's residence in Mexico are few.
