

FY13 CRL PURCHASE PROPOSAL ITEMS TO BE ACQUIRED

Bod-ljon par Tibet Daily (1961-1966; 1979; 1982; 1984; 1998; 2002; and 2005-2006)

26 reels; $2,490 depending on exchange rate

Bod-ljon par Tibet Daily is the main Tibetan language newspaper published by the Chinese Communist Party in Tibet. This is a primary source for the study of Tibet over the last 50-60 years.

British Intelligence on the North-West Frontier 1901-1949: India Office Political and Secret Reports on Tribes and Terrorism. British Library and India Office Collections.

33 reels; $7,549

Part of the IDC series, British Intelligence Files, the materials in this collection document the British attempts to impose order on the tribal territories. With details of policy initiatives familiar to contemporary observers of the current events, the files describe imperial struggles with jihadist movements and show how local leaders were able to stay out of British hands. The material covers the period 1901 to 1949, from the creation of the North-West Frontier Province to 1949, by which time the Province had become an administrative region of Pakistan.

Foreign Office Files for Post - War Europe, Series Two: The Treaty of Rome and European Integration, 1957-1960

73 reels; $14,600

Series two of the Foreign Office Files for Post-War Europe comes in three parts and contains files from the Public Record Office Class FO 371. This set documents how the European Economic Community grew and rebuilt Europe after World War II.

Newspapers from Nazi Germany (1929-1945)

80 reels; $10,800

This purchase will replace fragile hard copy and fill gaps in CRL holdings. It includes the following titles:

Völkischer Beobachter (Berlin, Germany: Norddeutsche Ausg.).

CRL will purchase: 1929-June 1940; Sept 1940-Dec.1940; March 1941; 1942-March 1944; 1945.

Deutsche allgemeine Zeitung (Berlin, Germany)

CRL will purchase: Apr 13, 1929-Sept 1929; Apr 26, 1932-Apr 28, 1932; Mar 10, 1933-June 17, 1933; Nov 3, 1939-Nov 9, 1939; March 10, 1945-March 12, 1945.

Der Angriff (Berlin, Germany).

CRL will purchase: May 1932-Aug 1932; 1934-April 24, 1945.

Knickerbocker Press Newspaper (1910 – 1937)

190 reels; $19,000

The Knickerbocker Press Newspaper is a regional newspaper from eastern upstate New York. This area has a long history as a hub for transportation (first steamboat line, the Erie Canal, a railway hub, and the first municipal airport in the United States) thus making it ideal for commerce and industry. It also became a center of political power. At one point, this newspaper carried the most advertisements for the Albany, NY area and was important to industries wishing to reach “able-to-buy” markets. The newspaper advertised itself as a quality newspaper that served “society” readers.

Papers of Emma Hart Willard, 1787-1870

25 reels; $6,420

This set includes personal papers and correspondence to and from the 19th century women’s educator, Emma Hart Willard.

Papers of the War Refugee Board

59 reels; $15,034

Established by executive order no. 9417, the War Refugee Board (WRB) aided victims of Nazi oppression. This collection contains correspondence, memoranda, reports, indexes, and related papers pertaining to the WRB policies, programs and operations in 1944 and 1945.

Qing dai Xinjiang dang an xuan ji (清代新疆档案选辑)

91 volumes; $9,256 depending on exchange rate

These volumes present Chinese language archival materials from the First Historical Archive of China, which houses archival materials of the Ming (1368-1644) and Qing governments (1644-1911). This collection is the first comprehensive published collection of archival materials regarding Xinjiang or Chinese Central Asia during the Qing period. The topics it covers are wide ranging, including but not limited to politics, social development, economic development, trade, agrarian development, labor relations, culture and religion, activities of local Islamic saints, etc. of Xinjiang.

The Rafu shimpo microfilm (July 1914-1949)

This is a continuing purchase that will be acquired in three parts:

First part, 132 reels (July 1914-1949); $23,760

Second part, 143 reels (1950-1979); $25,740

Third part, 129 reels (1980-2009); $23,200

Total cost: $72,700

The Rafu shimpo is a Japanese-American newspaper from Los Angeles and was published both in English and Japanese. This purchase will replace fragile CRL hard copy holdings and extend CRL’s microfilm holdings. Some comments from voters revealed how important this set was for the “burgeoning field of Asian American history/studies,” as it documents the “Japanese immigrant experience in the US.”

Satirische Zeitschriften (Satirical Periodicals)* (1848-1933)

1355 fiche; $12,200

The editors of these German illustrated satirical periodicals defied threats and censorship to lampoon the local, national, and international situations of the time. They covered historical events that occurred from the time of Metternich through Wilhelm II to Hitler.

Sexualerleben und Körperkultur (Sexual Experience and Physical Culture: Deutschsprachige Publikationen, 1880-1932.) Suppl. 1 2007

580 microfiche; $3,500

Sexualerleben und Körperkultur is a German language publication that was published between 1880 and 1932. This supplemental set provides a glimpse into the German culture and their views on sexual experience and modernity.

Si Fa Gong Bao (司法公报)

88 volumes; $8,299 depending on exchange rate

This publication covers the entire run of legislative bulletins at the national level throughout the Republican Minguo period in China, 1912-1948.

Total List Price: $181,848 USD (Includes the 2nd and 3rd parts purchase of The Rafu Shimpo)

Please note, based on comments received during the voting process it was discovered that most of the content in Zhongguo jin dai fu nu za zhi (中国近代妇女杂志, Womens Magazines of Modern China) is covered in another set, Zhongguo Jin Xian Dai Nu Xing Qi Kan Hui Bian, which is held by 19 CRL libraries. As a result, even though this set received a high ranking in the votes it will not be purchased.