Collaborative Initiatives

LLMC-Digital
- New undertaking with Law Libraries Microform Consortium (LLMC)
- 20 million pages converted legal and government texts
- Access open to all CRL libraries in FY11
Digital Collections and Services at CRL

- CRL strategic goal: providing research and teaching resources in digital format
- Annual in-house digital conversion: more than 700,000 pages/ 4,500 items
- Selection for digital conversion: two sources
  - Digital delivery (patron loan requests provided in digital format) -- 75%
  - Strategic digitization -- 25%
Digital delivery for scholars
CRL Digital Delivery: What happens when a scholar requests loan of an item?

1. Page the item(s)
2. Review condition, format, and extent
3. Digital delivery possible? Notify member library
4. Create digital filename; assign delivery date
CRL Digital Delivery workflow Part II

1. Scan the item(s)
2. Create OCR (searchable text), save as PDF file
3. Mount files on CRL’s server + link from record in OPAC
4. Send member email with URL
5. Update WorldCat
Strategic Digitization

Identify primary resources for digital conversion – in support of undergraduate instruction or targeted research projects

TOPICS INCLUDE
• Drum magazine
• CCC Camp newspapers
• Theses by notable scientists
Access to CRL Digital Items

1. From CRL Digital Collections Page

2. From ‘Digital Version’ link in catalog

For off-campus access to “Members Restricted” digital items: add CRL to proxy server configuration
Copyright Access & Restrictions

- Three categories of accessibility – based on fair use principles
  - Open access (public domain)
  - Member access (“gray area”)
  - Member access restricted (active copyright protection)

  - Configure proxy server for Member Access
Digital Access to Copyrighted Items

For source items with active copyright protection: member agrees to use restrictions

Outreach Services

Work falls into 3 categories:
• Reference Consultation
• Cooperative Collection Development Programs
• Projects with members such as the Undergraduate Research Working Group
Reference Consultation

Outcomes include:

• Identifying material of interest to researchers
  Ex. – Prof. Sabine Wilke (University of Washington) & German Colonialism
Reference Consultation

Example:
Identifying material for classroom use
  – Historical Methods Class at Carnegie Mellon
    – English Language newspapers (from Egypt and Lebanon)
  – Other English language materials
Reference Consultation

Outcomes include:

• Identifying pieces needed using guides which can also lead to:

• Purchasing needed material via one of CRL’s purchasing programs

• Student interested in Korean Missions
CRL’s three longstanding cooperative programs enable members to offer a broad range of collection resources to patrons while conserving precious acquisition funds for local resources:

- Demand Purchase Program
- Purchase Proposal Program
- Shared Purchase Program

In order to meet the changing needs of scholars, CRL offers a new program on a trial basis: the Scholars’ Access Program.

Each of these programs enables CRL libraries to make new source materials available to researchers at their institutions without incurring the costs of acquiring, cataloging, processing, and storing those materials. CRL’s Member Liaison & Outreach Services Director works with librarians, faculty, and students from member libraries to identify and select materials for addition to the shared CRL collections.
Some Recently Acquired Resources

- China Inland Mission
- The German Colonial Archives
  Reichskolonialamt R100
- Sound Toll Register
Undergraduate Research Work Group

The Undergraduate Research Work Group identifies small, focused collections of primary source material for digitization by CRL to support upper-level undergraduate coursework and instruction. The group also seeks to include unique material held by member libraries that complements the identified themes.

Examples of past collections include:

- Sepoy Mutiny
- World War II and the development of the bomb (The Manhattan Project)
- South and Southeast Asia music and dance materials

History

The group was initially formed as the Liberal Arts Interest Group in the summer of 2007, to work with faculty to identify broad topics and themes for seminars taught at multiple institutions. In 2009, the Undergraduate Research Work Group was renamed to reflect the new constituency, which includes representatives from mid-sized universities as well as liberal arts colleges.
Topics included:

- South & Southeast Asian Music & Dance
- Sepoy Mutiny
- Manhattan Project (Atom Bomb development in WWII)
CRL Member Benefits

- Unlimited access to resources
- Digitization of requested material; strategic digitization
- Third-day ILL delivery & project-length loan periods
- Participation in cooperative acquisition programs
- Member liaison services
- Cost avoidance (canceling subscriptions, demand purchase)
- CRL governance (board, committees, task force projects, budget approval)
- Web consultation
- Loading records
- Primary Source Awards
- Membership in a community that preserves resources by developing digital and print archives
CRL Strategic Objectives

CRL’s work is supported by a recent grant of $1.45 million from the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation, with the following main objectives:

- Objective 1: Expanding electronic access to critical source materials, particularly news, archives, journals, and dissertations and theses, for the CRL community.
- Objective 2: Supporting responsible, cooperative preservation of print and digital resources.

To enable its community to accelerate the transition from print to digital, CRL is taking action on three fronts:

1. Archiving critical print materials
2. Expanding digital access to primary sources
3. Promoting confidence in, and support for, digital preservation
