

An evolution of journal collaboration

An evolution of trust

Benjamin Walker, Emily Stambaugh
ALA Midwinter 2017, Atlanta

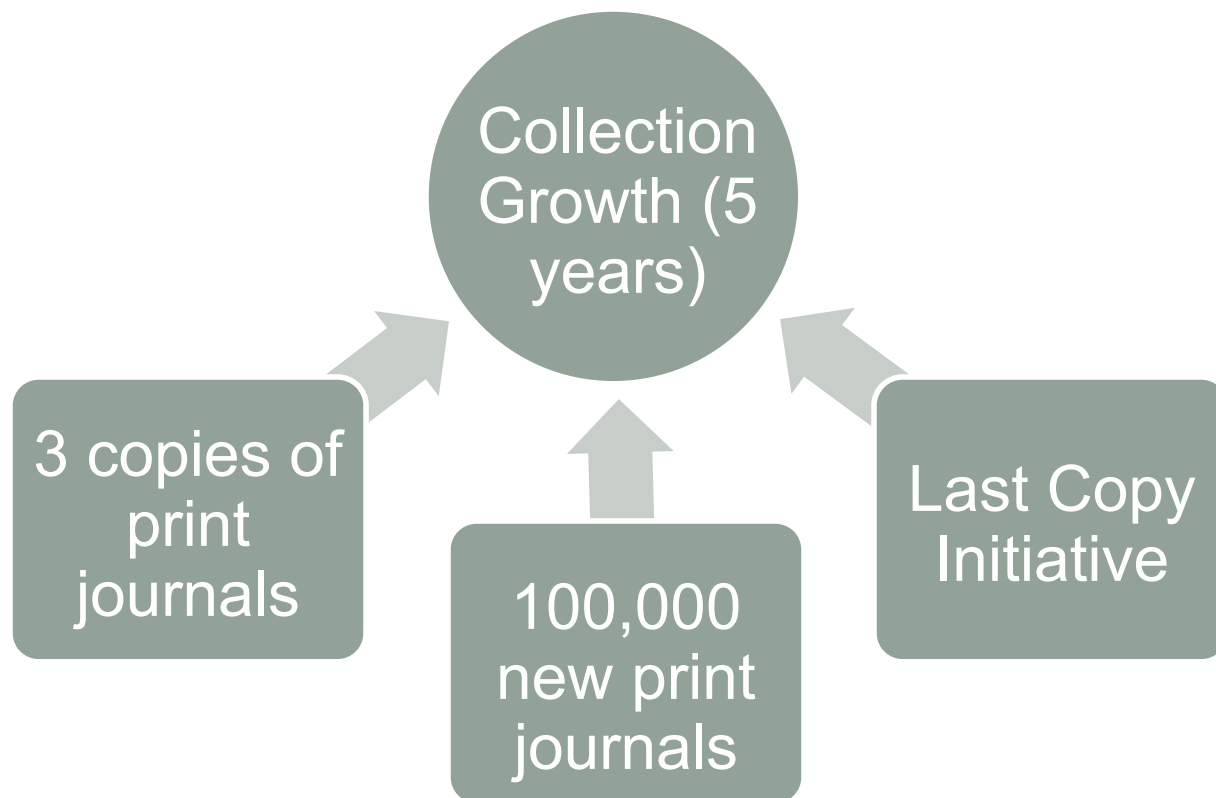

Common vision

- To ensure the preservation and availability of print journal literature.
- To collaboratively develop, manage and coordinate the identification, retention, registration, discovery of and access to a shared, distributed collection of print journals in the United States.
- Strategic Directions 2017-2021
 - Collection Growth
 - Shared Policies/Guidelines
 - Engagement with other programs and service providers

Strategic Direction:

Collection
Growth

3-Pronged Approach:

Strategic Direction:

Shared Policies/ Guidelines

Strategic Direction:

Engagement with other programs

- Share information, expertise with other programs
- Develop a participation model
- Eventually engage other groups

Strategic Direction:

Engagement with service providers

- Support Sustainable Collection Services as they explore and develop decision-support services and tools for journals
- AGUA and JRNL transfer of expertise
- Metadata and holdings sharing
- Business modeling

Membership and Governance

Participation model (to be developed)

- shared print journal programs
- state, regional focus in the United States
- initially four programs

Executive Committee and Operations Committee

- Responsible for guiding collective efforts among regions, consortia and member libraries and with other organizations
- Representatives from participating programs

FLorida
Academic REpository

Thank you!

Contacts:

Benjamin Walker, FLARE

Emily Stambaugh, WEST

Kim Armstrong, BTAA

John Burger, ScholarsTrust

Mark Jacobs, ScholarsTrust