

Draft – subject to change

New Shape of Sharing: Networks, Expertise, Information

Fiesole, Italy, 11-14 May, 2020

Posters

Two Institutions, One Collection: A Success Story Told with Data and Documentation.

Heidi Madden (Duke University) Joanneke Elliot (University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill)

A Cross-Atlantic Collaboration.

Hélène Huet (University of Florida)

A DH Model Kit: An Experiment in Team Building with Arts & Humanities Liaison Librarians.

Morag Stewart, Elliott Stevens, Deb Raftus, Theresa Mudrock (University of Washington)

Considerations for Building Special Collections in a Consortial Environment.

Rachel Makarowski, Katie Gibson (Miami University, Ohio)

Cooperative Collection Development: Current Practices for Area Studies.

Brian Vetruba (University of Minnesota)

Data Management for the Humanities.

Sarah G. Wenzel (University of Chicago)

Expertise Sharing through Virtual Mentoring.

Kelsey Corlett Rivera (University of Maryland)

New Methods in Digital Libraries: Python Programming for Access to Online Materials.

Ian Goodale (University of Texas, Austin)

Sharing the European Union: The Archive of European Integration (AEI).

Daniel Pennell (University of Pittsburgh)