

Draft – subject to change

New Shape of Sharing: Networks, Expertise, Information
Fiesole, Italy, 11-14 May, 2020

All events are held at Torrossa, Fiesole, except Casalini Libri & library visits

Monday, May 11

Early afternoon Optional visit to Casalini Libri operations with transport back to Torrossa.
4pm Registration opens
5-7:30pm Opening remarks and keynote, followed by reception.
Keynote:
Dr. Klaus Ceynowa, Director General Bayerische Staatsbibliothek
"Research Libraries in Digital Times - Last Stand or First Choice? - the Perspective of the Bavarian State Library".

Tuesday, May 12

8:30-9am Registration and coffee

9-10:30am Panel 1 : National and Historical libraries

- Working with Romance Collections in a National Library: Exploring New Strategies.
(Valentina Mirabella, Sophie De France, British Library)
- Sharing and Expanding Expertise in the Development and Promotion of the Italian Collections at the Library of Congress
(Lucia Wolf, Library of Congress)
- The Active role of Research Libraries with Historical Collections in the Research Process.
(Kathrin Paasch, Gotha Research Library)

10:30-10:45am Break

10:45am-12:15pm Panel 2 : New Interactions Between Librarians, Digital Humanists, and Scholars

- Déborah Blocker, University of California, Berkeley
- Carlotta Paltrinieri, Medici Archive Project, Florence
- Emilio Degli'Innocenti, Consiglio Nazionale delle Ricerche and DARIAH-IT National coordinator

12:15-1:15pm Lunch (on site)

- 1:15-3pm Panel 3 : Scholarly Communications, Evolving Library Roles
- Teaching Information Skills by Stealth (Emma Huber, Bodleian Library, Oxford University)
 - Data and the Evolving Academic Ecosystem (Heather Moulaison-Sandy, University of Missouri, Sarah G. Wenzel, University of Chicago)
 - Library Support for an OA Journal (Timothy Shipe, University of Iowa)
- 3-3:30pm Coffee break
- 3:30-5pm Concurrent Break-Out Sessions 1
- Consortial Collection Development : ReCAP Discovery to Delivery (Denise Hibay (New York Public Library), Elizabeth Kirk (Harvard University), Meredith Levin (Columbia University))
 - Open Access
 - Advocating for Open Access: International Roles and Opportunities to Promote Sharing (Heather Moulaison-Sandy, University of Missouri)
 - The Digital Cicognara Library: An International Open Access Collaboration of the Early Literature of the Arts (Holly Hatheway, Princeton University)

Wednesday, May 13

- 9-11am Panel 4 : Bibliodiversity. Chair, Claude Potts (UC Berkeley)
- Innovation in Publishing, Distribution, and Implications for Collecting (Holly Ackerman, Duke University, Teresa Chapa, University of North Carolina)
 - A Panel on Independent Publishing in Europe (Claude Potts, University of California, Berkeley)
- 11:15-12:30 Concurrent Break-Out Sessions 2
- Consortial Collection Development : Sustainable Vendor-Inclusive Cooperative Collection Development (Barbara Alvarez, University of Michigan)
 - Assessment for Resource Sharing (Bibliometrics and Altmetrics)
 - Assessing the use of European Studies Collections Beyond the Checkout Count: Potentials and Problems of Citation Analysis and Interlibrary Loan Statistics from the Institution to the Consortium (Jeremy Ott, University of California, Berkeley)

- Use of Bibliometrics for Collection Development in Italian Academic Libraries
(Rossana Morriello, La Sapienza, Rome 3)

12:30 -1:45pm Lunch (on site)

1:45-3pm Poster session

3:15-5pm Concurrent Breakouts 3

- Consortial Collection Development :
 - Orchestrating a Cooperative Collection Development Program for Music Scores
(Laura Williams, Duke University, Darwin F. Scott, Princeton University)
 - International Print collections in a Consortial Environment: A Case study of Western European Resource Sharing (Lisa Gardinier, University of Iowa, Manuel Ostos, Pennsylvania State University)
- Analysis of international e-resources :
 - Usage of a Key platform for French-Language Publications [Reception of French-language Journals in Anglophone North American Universities]
(Jeremie Roche, Thomas Parisot, CAIRN)
 - Collection development and Acquisitions Strategies for Libraries and Publishers
(John Lenahan, Ithaka S+R/JSTOR)

5-6pm Closing reflections

Thursday, May 14th

Library visits in Florence

Friday, May 15th

Library visits in Rome